This team meets weekly to discuss new patient diagnosis, treatment plans and to review individual progress. They aim to provide the highest possible standard of care and support for you and your family.

The team works closely with Nottingham Cancer Centre, who may be invited to discuss your illness, if it is believed that this will benefit your progress.

Sometimes, it is necessary for you to be seen by the Nottingham Team to discuss treatment options. If this is the case, it will be discussed with you.
